Fireside chat with
Pres. Michael Berndt

Introverts ARE leaders. This inspirational and practical webinar demonstrates how introverts can use their quiet strengths to conquer leadership challenges. All team members and leaders will see how to get the best out of introverts. This webinar will include a fireside chat with College President Michael Berndt exploring his leadership journey as an introvert. In this webinar you will learn:

- A better understanding of the differences between introverts and extroverts
- Challenges for introverts in a Type A workplace and practical tips for how to overcome them
- The 4 P's Process of leadership success
- Suggestions to help your organization become a more introvert-friendly workplace
- Action steps that can immediately be applied
